

10 VERSES TO REFRAME SURVIVAL MODE

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.

(Gal. 6:9, ESV)

For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

(James 1:3-4, NLT)

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

(2 Tim. 4:7, ESV)

... and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith ...

(Heb. 12: 1b-2a, NKJV)

... and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame ...

(Rom. 5:4-5a, ESV)

... and having done all, to stand firm. ... To that end, keep alert with all perseverance ...

(Eph. 6: 13b, 18b, ESV)

Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.

(Rom. 12:12, ESV)

Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.

(1 Cor. 13:7, NLT)

Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.

(Phil. 3:12, ESV)

But what happens when we live God's way? He brings gifts into our lives, much the same way that fruit appears in an orchard—things like affection for others, exuberance about life, serenity. We develop a willingness to stick with things, a sense of compassion in the heart, and a conviction that a basic holiness permeates things and people. We find ourselves involved in loyal commitments, not needing to force our way in life, able to marshal and direct our energies wisely.

(Gal. 5:22-23, MSG)
